Eleven Waters at Marriott Syracuse Downtown invites guests to savor a three-course, prix fixe menu for $25 in celebration of Downtown Syracuse Dining Weeks. From Feb. 15 until March 1, guests can enjoy the special menu featuring Grilled Tomato Toast, Duck Cassoulet and Coffee Pot de Crème.

Inspired by New York's Finger Lakes wine region, Eleven Waters proudly crafts unique local flavors in a modern yet rustic bistro setting. Every entrée on the menu is prepared with a Finger Lakes wine pairing in mind for a bonafide Upstate New York dining experience like no other. Featuring a bar carved into the hotel's historic barber shop, the bistro embraces the rich history of the former Hotel Syracuse.

About Marriott Syracuse Downtown

Located in one of the area's most historic buildings, the new 261-room Marriott Syracuse Downtown opened in fall 2016 after a major renovation to restore the hotel to its original glory. Conveniently situated just minutes from all that downtown Syracuse has to offer, from its many businesses to numerous entertainment venues and cultural sites, the hotel is an ideal destination for business and leisure travelers alike. The hotel's stylish interiors combine history and modernity – with original features dating back to 1924 and new furnishings designed by local Stickley furniture. In addition to the hotel's restaurant, Eleven Waters, and its casual gathering spot, The Cavalier Room, Marriott Syracuse Downtown offers a choice of 23 event rooms that include expansive, state-of-the-art meeting venues and facilities for up to 1,330 guests. All main floor meeting rooms, as well as the Finger Lakes Ballroom, meet the discerning standards of International Association of Conference Centers (IACC). The hotel is located at 100 E. Onondaga Street and is managed by Crescent Hotels & Resorts. For more information, call \(315\) 474-2424 or visit marriottsyracusedowntown.com.
